Nature of Activities

The foundation hosts events that bring speakers from DOL (Department Of Labor), USCIS (United States Immigration Services), DHS (Department of Homeland Security), FDNS (Fraud Detection & National Security), EEC (Equal Employment Commission), American Chamber of Commerce, Police officers and few of the nation's best Immigration & Labor attorneys all in "1" panel for a Face 2 Face conversation with international students.

Promises To Give

All services are rendered for charitable reasons ONLY i.e. there are no financial transactions between the foundation and the student community or the speakers.

Forecast and Estimates

The financial statements and the operating budget are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

The organization currently does not have any property and equipment and if purchased, or donated by contribution the foundation will record a fair value at the date of donation. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose.

Contributions

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets depending on the absence or existence and nature of any donor restrictions by program.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit organization exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation.
